RE: Echos of Faith

It is a great honor to recommend to you the Echos of Faith southern gospel quartet. I have known these folks since October 1994. Each of them has a genuine Christian testimony which translates into a very effective ministry. They are gifted musicians and vocalists whose ministry is wrapped in sincere humility and complete dependence on the Lord Jesus Christ.

They are such a blessing to our church. Their singing ministry is just a part of their service to our Savior. They are deeply involved in our total church ministry which includes Sunday school, Vacation Bible School, visitation, and ministry to our shut-ins. Each member of the Echos of Faith has a passion for reaching those who do not know our Savior. They do a wonderful job of representing our Savior and church as they sing at local restaurants, nursing homes, and churches.

As the pastor of the Echos of Faith, I can tell you that when it comes to living the Christian life they are the real deal. There is nothing stale or repetitive about them. Their performances are fresh, Spirit-filled and directed by the Holy Spirit. Your church will truly be blessed by allowing the Echos of Faith to minister to you.

Serving Christ joyfully,

Stephen L. Marine
